

ACADEMIC DEPARTMENTS

There are multiple academic departments at Frederick Community College within Liberal Arts (<http://frederick-public.courseleaf.com/academic-departments/liberal-arts/>) and Health, Business, Technology & Science (<http://frederick-public.courseleaf.com/academic-departments/health-business-technology--science/>). There are also several academic programs offered by Continuing Education & Workforce Development (CEWD) (<http://frederick-public.courseleaf.com/academic-departments/cewd-academic-programs/>) and the Mid-Atlantic Center for Emergency Management & Public Safety (MACEM&PS) (<http://frederick-public.courseleaf.com/academic-departments/macemps/>). Each department has a department chair and/or program manager(s) responsible for academic matters within that department. Following is a list of credit programs of study offered by the various departments.
