

WORLD LANGUAGES: ARABIC (ARBC)

ARBC 101 - Introductory Arabic I (3)

Gen Ed Humanities

(formerly LAR 101)

Introduces the fundamentals of the Arabic language both written and spoken. Offers a strong foundation in the language through development of vocabulary, grammar, reading, and conversational skills. Offers insights into Arabic culture and customs.

ARBC 102 - Introductory Arabic II (3)

Gen Ed Humanities

Prerequisite: ARBC 101 or permission of program manager

(formerly LAR 102)

Continues the fundamentals of the Arabic language, both written and spoken. Offers a strong foundation in the language through further development of vocabulary, grammar, reading, and conversational skills. Provides insights into Arabic culture and customs.